1937. The old Fort in Heber in 1859-60

The notes kept by uncle John Crook, seem to be about as authentic as any information we can get hold of, and from these notes his son John W. Crook, finds that families of the following named men occupied the Fort during the winter of 1859-60: Alex Sessions, James Davis, John Sessions, Hyrum Oaks, James Carlile, Thomas Raaband, John Crook, Elisha Thomas, John Jordan, Charles W. Carroll, John Lee, Richard Jones, Wm Davidson also the families of Mrs Clotworthy and aunt Elizabeth Carlile, Zamira Palmer Elias Cox, John W. Witt and Robert S. Duke had built houses but did not remain to live in them that first winter, according to the same informant those who spent the winter of 1859-60 at the Fort were joined the following winter, 1860-61, by the families of George Carlile, Robert S. Duke, John W. Witt, Thomas Hicken, Thos Moulton Jno M. Murdock, Wm Meeks, Jas. Adams, William, John, & Joseph Mc Donald, Jno. Duke, Geo. Giles, Thos & Giles, Wm Giles, Jno. Cummings Elisha Jones, Jno. O. Duke, Thos Todd, Jesse Bond, Stephen Bond, Zamira Palmer, Jno Hamilton, Geo W. Clyde, Wm Forman, Henry D. Young, Robert Carlile, Elias Cox, Johnathan Clegg, Geo Thompson Robert Montgomery, Jno. Mc Cackney, Darwin Gialton, Wm Cummings and Robert Parker. I, Jas W Carlile is the son of James Carlile, was born in Heber Oct 14, 1865, so I came very near being a pioneer.

This movement proved very successful for a number of years, and the friendships formed among its members are among the precious things of life.

L. A. Arrest reveals husband of four years to be woman
Los Angeles Sept 30.

Michael Higgins, 23, had been married for four years, had brought home the bacon to his wife & his mother-in-law, but it took a suspicious jail physician to unmask Michael as a woman. The unmasking occurred Friday when Michael arranged for forging a $14.00 check, appeared in a police show-up, Mrs Elizabeth Harvey Higgins, the wife-in-name, who eloped with Michael to Tijuana in 1934, told her husband's attorney, Jerome Ralston, that the revelation was an unbelievable surprise and shock to her. She insisted she never suspected her husband was a woman. The landlady of the apartment house, where the Higgins lived, was thunderstruck. Workers in a garage where Mike was employed as a clerk were practically speechless. even Mike's mother-in-law, Mrs Della Harvey, who has been living with her boy as she calls him, was struck with wonder when informed she had lost a son-in-law but may have acquired a daughter-in-law.

The district attorney's office was confused, too, by the sudden sex change of Michael Higgins, who, under the name of Frank M. Higgins, is scheduled to appear on trial Oct 6, on an old embezzlement charge. Michael, transferred to the women's ward when the results of the physician's examination were revealed, was stripped of his natty brown suit and given a blue denim house dress. And she had this to say:

My attorney will issue a statement that will clear this whole thing up. And then Mike wondered aloud why his wife hadn't called at the jail.

Can you beat this one,
one are the other of them were dumb.

ton, she sailed from England to America in May, 1856; a baby brother was born on board ship. They crossed the plains with Captain Willies, belated handcart company suffering hunger, cold and over exertion with that snow bound company. She tells of the joy at the coming of the rescue party and the delight of white bread and butter, after weeks of starvation rations. The family were among the vallant pioneers of Provo Valley, their home being at Heber City.

She married Willard Carroll on March 15, 1869, in the Endowment House. Mr. Carroll saw active service in the Black Hawk Indian War. In 1877 they joined a co-operative movement known as the United Order, at Orderville, Kane County, Utah. Elkhorn Ward 8th ELKHORN WARD, Wasatch Stake, Wasatch County, Utah, consisted of Latter-day Saints residing in a scattered condition along the Provo River for a distance of about four miles. It included the well known Hallstone Ranch and also what was originally called the Moulton Ranch. Hallstone Ranch is located at a point where Hallstone and Cluff Creeks empty into the Provo River about eight miles northeast of Heber City. The Branch included several families residing at different points on the Provo River, on Cluff Creek, in Cluff Hollow, and on Hallstone Creek (also called Red Pine Creek). The families at the Hallstone Ranch and vicinity belonged for a number of years to the Heber East Ward. A temporary branch organization was effected in that neighborhood at an early day with John Jordan as presiding Elder. He was succeeded by William Moulton, who died and was succeeded by William Davis as presiding Elder. Pres. Davis was succeeded in 1891 by Henry Cluff, and on Nov. 10, 1899, the Hallstone Branch was organized as a ward called the Elkhorn Ward, with Henry Cluff as Bishop. Bro. Cluff was succeeded in 1908 by Orson H. Lee, who presided until Nov. 30, 1913, when the Elkhorn Ward was discontinued and the few Saints remaining in that part of the country were united with the Heber Second Ward, where they belonged Dec. 31, 1930.

Utah Pioneer Paid Tribute

OGDEN, Jan. 17.—Mrs. Charlotte Moulton Carroll, 84, a pioneer was honored by sons and daughters, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, including two grandsons who have recently returned from the mission field during the period following New Year's.

At present she is living with her daughter, Sarah E. Lake, Oakley, Summit County, Utah. She has been an active Church worker all her life. With her parents, Thomas and Sarah Denton Moulton, she sailed from England to America in May, 1856; a baby brother was born on board ship. They crossed the plains with Captain Willies, belated handcart company suffering hunger, cold and over exertion with that snow bound company. She tells of the joy at the coming of the rescue party, and the delight of white bread and butter, after weeks of starvation rations. The family were among the vallant pioneers of Provo Valley, their home being at Heber City.

She married Willard Carroll on March 15, 1869, in the Endowment House. Mr. Carroll saw active service in the Black Hawk Indian War. In 1877 they joined a co-operative movement known as the United Order, at Orderville, Kane County, Utah. This movement proved very successful for a number of years, and the friendships formed among its members are among the precious things of life.

CHURCH HISTORY PICTURES

OUTSTANDING events in Church history from 1834 to 1838, inclusive, were the march of Zion's Camp from Kirtland to Missouri, the organization of the Council of the Twelve and the first quorum of seventy, the acceptance by the Church of the Doctrine and Covenants and the dedication of the Kirtland Temple.

The Saints in Jackson County, Missouri, undergoing severe persecutions and driven from their possessions, appealed to the body of the Church at Kirtland for moral support and assistance in buying and holding their lands. This led to the organization of Zion's Camp. As the company left Kirtland on May 5, 1834, it numbered about 150, but was increased to about 200 by the time it reached Missouri. On the arrival of the camp in the vicinity of Jackson county, owing to prejudices and misunderstanding of its purpose, the wisdom of disbanding the organization and awaiting a future opportunity for the redemption of Zion was apparent to its leaders. Accordingly, it was disbanded from its encampment o. Rush creek in Clay county on June 24.

The first Council of Twelve was chosen at Kirtland, Feb. 14, 1835. The members were Thomas B. Marsh, David W. Patten, Brigham Young, Heber C. Kimball, Orson Hyde, Wm. E. McLellan, Parley P. Pratt, Luke S. Johnson, William B. Smith, Orson Pratt, John F. Boynton and Lyman E. Johnson. Church chronology says the organization of the First quorum of Seventy was "commenced" at Kirtland, February 28, 1835.

The Doctrine and Covenants was accepted at a general assembly of the Church at Kirtland on August 17, 1835.

The Kirtland Temple was dedicated on Sunday, March 27, 1836. On Sunday, April 3, the Prophet and Oliver Cowdery saw and heard the Savior in this sacred edifice. Moses also appeared to them, as did Elias and Elijah.

Heber City Boasts Old Homes

One of the oldest buildings in Heber city is the building now located on Fourth north street one block west of Main street, which was erected during 1862-1863 by William Alexander Carter and occupied by a man by the name of Miller from 1862 to 1869.

The building was originally built for a store by Mr. Carter, who hired Miller to manage the store. The store was operated from 1862 until 1869, when Abraham Hatch opened a new store in Heber City. During the latter part of 1869 the store went out of business.

The building has since been used as a school house, a dwelling house, tin shop, and as a stable for horses. It is now empty and the rock, of which it is constructed, is now coming loose.

Another old building was one constructed in 1863 by William Forman, on Third north and Second west street. The building has three rooms in a row and is built of red sand stone.

This building was built for the two wives of Wm. Forman. It had a bed room on each end and a large room in the center used as a dining room for both of the wives.
